The National Child Passenger Safety Board is proud to announce the addition of Sarah Tilton as the Board's newest Child Passenger Safety Advocate. Ms. Tilton will serve a three-year term.

Sarah Tilton is the Child Passenger Safety Advocate for BRITAX Child Safety, Inc. She has been an active Child Passenger Safety Technician (CPST) since 2002 and CPST Instructor since 2004. Sarah is the spokesperson for BRITAX within the advocacy community, participating in child passenger safety activities at a local, state and national level. Sarah serves on the new product development, technical writing and marketing teams at BRITAX. In addition, she managed and developed the training curriculum for the BRITAX Consumer Services Department, and organized and implemented a permanent checking station at BRITAX during her 11 years with the company. Sarah is currently active with the Safe Kids Charlotte Mecklenburg (NC) and Safe Kids York County (SC) coalitions and is a member of the NC Child Passenger Safety Training Committee. In her spare time Sarah enjoys billiards, cross-stitch, cooking, and visiting with her two granddaughters whenever possible.

The mission of the National Child Passenger Safety Board is to maintain the quality and integrity of the national child passenger safety certification training program. This program is used to train and certify child passenger safety (CPS) technicians and instructors. For more information about child passenger safety or the National CPS Board, please visit the Board's website at www.cpsboard.org.
