Bob Stevens Named to National Child Passenger Safety Board

Itasca, IL – The National Child Passenger Safety Board (NCPSB) is proud to announce the appointment of Bob Stevens who will represent the Governors Highway Safety Association (GHSA) on the Board. Stevens is the Law Enforcement Liaison for North Carolina Governor’s Highway Safety Program.

Prior to his position as the state’s Law Enforcement Liaison, Stevens served as a law enforcement officer in a thirty-year career with the Garner, North Carolina Police Department; his last 12 years were served as lieutenant supervising the Traffic Safety Division.

“I’ve spent 9 years as a CPS technician. The permanent seat check service offered in our area truly fulfills a need in the community; child passenger safety is one of the critical traffic safety program areas,” said Stevens.

“It’s wonderful that the NCPSB’s GHSA Representative has a law enforcement background, as a high percentage of technicians nationwide are first responders. Engaging police, fire and EMT’s as CPS technicians is critical to the success of child passenger safety education at the local, state and national level,” said Amy Artuso, NCPSB secretariat and program manager at the National Safety Council.
